

Press Release

Notifying individuals or juristic persons having contract with the government agencies that has not filed the Bor Chor 1 Form for the accounting periods or tax years of B.E. 2555 (A.D. 2012) and 2556 (A.D. 2013) to expedite the preparation and submission of the Form to the Revenue Department to avoid disqualification as parties to government contracts

As the Notification of the National Anti-Corruption Commission Concerning Principles and Methods of Preparing Revenue and Expense Accounts of Project(s) between Individual/Company and Government Agencies B.E. 2554 (A.D. 2011), and its amendments, oblige individuals or juristic persons having contracts with government agencies from 1 April B.E. 2555 (A.D. 2012) onwards in projects concerning procurement, concession, or funding of research or activity with value exceeding 2,000,000 baht to prepare and submit revenue and expense accounts for each accounting period or tax year to the Revenue Department on an annual basis until termination of their obligations under the project or expiration of warranty period. Aforementioned documents are to be submitted together with personal or corporate income tax (PND 50), as the case may be.

Following inspection, it appears that during the accounting period or tax year of B.E. 2555-56 (A.D. 2012-13), there are individuals and juristic persons having contract with government agencies that have not yet submitted revenue and expense accounts (Bor Chor 1) or have not properly completed the submission. Therefore, such individuals and juristic persons are requested to urgently proceed with the submission accordingly, otherwise non-compliance could constitute possible disqualification as parties with government agencies.

In addition, submission of revenue and expense accounts (Bor Chor 1) requires for each contract's Control Number (e-GP) to be provided in the Form. Control number can be found at http://www.nacc.go.th/contract/check_egpid.php. In case the control number of a specific contract cannot be found, please contact the contracting government agency or NACC Public Procurement Supervision Centre at 02528 4800 ext. 4235, 4435 and 4881.
